FREE Thanksgiving Table Runner Class

We are planning a class for this Thanksgiving table runner on Thursday, November 13th. Class will be from 6PM until 8PM and includes all materials to make this fabulous runner. There will be no class fee. Kits are $33.98. This would make a fabulous hostess gift if you are invited out for dinner on Thanksgiving day, or, perhaps you would like to make it for yourself to add a festive, fall colored decoration. Give us a call to sign up. We have space for 5 students.

A reminder:

Cazenovia Fabrics will be closed on Mondays during the winter, beginning November 3rd. We will close at 4PM instead of 5PM every day. We will still be open on Sundays, though, from noon until 4PM and look forward to seeing you in spite of the winter weather.
